

CAMBRIDGESHIRE FAMILY HISTORY SOCIETY

Registered Charity No. 278815 www.cfhs.org.uk

FAMILY HISTORY FAIR

Saturday 26 October 2013

Girton Glebe Primary School, Girton, CB3 0PN

10.00-16.00

Have you been inspired by 'Who Do You Think You Are?' to look into your family history? Have you been researching your family history for a while and come up against a brick wall? Come along to the Cambridgeshire Family History Society Fair and get free advice from local family history experts.

There will be a free internet research room run by the Society's volunteers with access to findmypast.co.uk, ancestry.co.uk, britishnewspaperarchive.co.uk as well as the Society's own transcribed parish records.

Plus talks from expert speakers...

- Using The National Archives - Simon Fowler
- 20th Century Research - Ian Waller
- Newspapers - Mike Petty
- Dating Victorian Photos - Tom Doig
- Computer Research - Helen Tarbox
- 200 Years of Civil Registration - Louise Clover
- War Memorials - Martin Edwards

and more than 20 exhibitors...

- | | | |
|--|---|--|
| · CFHS March Branch | · Northamptonshire FHS | · Family Tree magazine |
| · East of London FHS | · Peterborough FHS | · Keepsake Imagery – photographic restoration & retouching |
| · Essex FHS | · Romany & Traveller FHS | · Maxbal Genealogy - family tree charts |
| · Felixstowe FHS | · Royston FHS | · Robert Parker – myfamilygenealogy |
| · Federation of Family History Societies | · Cambridgeshire Archives | · Roll of Honour – war memorials |
| · Histon History Society | · Cambridgeshire Local Studies | · Tom Doig – Victorian photograph identification & dating |
| · Huntingdonshire FHS | · CAB Search – acid free storage products | |
| · Norfolk FHS | · Desira – old postcards | |

Admission to the fair is free, but attendance at talks is priced at £2 per person, per lecture. Free car parking will be available on site. The Citi 6 bus stops very close to the school and runs every 20 minutes from/to Cambridge city centre.