Choral Concert in Fen Ditton

Sunday 20th March, 19:30, Fen Ditton

On Sunday 20th March, 7:30 pm, New Cambridge Singers, one of Cambridge's leading chamber choirs, will be presenting two contrasting masterpieces for their Lenten concert in St Mary's, Fen Ditton.

Swiss composer Frank Martin's epic Mass for Double Choir is one of the greatest choral works of the twentieth century, soulful, energetic, rhythmic and achingly powerful by turns. Written in the 1920s, Martin kept the manuscript in a drawer for some forty years because, as he said, "I did not want it to be performed...I considered it as being a matter between God and myself. I felt then that an expression of religious feeling should remain secret and removed from public opinion."

He perhaps also felt that his efforts would seem presumptuous beside the genius of Bach, whose St Matthew Passion he had heard as a ten year old. This had affected him profoundly and set him on the path as a musician.

He was eventually persuaded by friends to release the Mass, which was published and performed for the first time in 1963

Pergolesi's famous Stabat Mater is a moving and profoundly human picture of a grieving mother. It was composed in the final weeks of his life, before his death from tuberculosis at the age of twenty six. It will be performed for women's voices, accompanied by organ.

Tickets £12 ( under 18s free).

Barry & Sue Eddy are happy to take bookings for the concert on 01223 242226 or tickets will be on sale at The Kings Head, Fen Ditton.

Sewage works Consultation - Last chance to tell them what you think!

Anglian Water's Phase 3 Consultation is now underway. This is your FINAL opportunity to have your say about traffic access, design, odour, carbon cost, four years of construction traffic and other issues. The consultation runs from the 24th February to the 27th April. All residents will have the chance to comment and ALL comments will go to the Planning Inspectors. The PCCs accounts are more extensive. Income and expenditure is mostly by direct debit and credit, with a few costs paid via online banking. The treasurer presents a financial summary to the PCC up to four times a year, as well as preparing year end accounts for the Annual Meeting (APCM).

How to submit news to the Herald

The only guideline for news is for events and articles that are of direct relevance to the inhabitants of Horningsea. The Herald does not accept advertising, but one off "news items" may be used to publicise local businesses. To submit news items either email "horningseanews@gmail.com" or submit them via Twitter.

<https://twitter.com/horningseanews>.

In these pandemic days all villagers are invited to send in recipes, thoughts on lockdown, photos of the village past and present, your hobbies! If it interests the editorial team then it gets published!

You must submit by the 2nd or 4th weekend of the month, the Herald being published before the first and third weekends of the month. Submission of any news items implies consent to any editing and the editorial team's decision is always final. Always send as plain text via email. Do NOT send formatted documents. Do NOT send articles as PDF or Word files. Stay under 700 words, preferably less. Attach any photos to the email. If you send in a PDF or image of a poster/flyer then attach a paragraph of text to go into the Herald as well.
